UK College of Business and Computing (UKCBC) prides itself on being a long-standing, caring educational institution that has been founded on equal opportunities for all. UKCBC expects all students to conduct themselves in a manner that does not bring the College into disrepute, including conduct whilst not on College campuses. The Student Code of Conduct sets out UKCBC's expectations in relation to standard of behaviour and is further supported by the Student Charter and the Student Handbook. Students must familiarise themselves with this code of conduct.
